You're in Very Good Hands

Charismata Home Health has established a reputation of providing extraordinary home care to patients in their own home. With Charismata HH patients receive quality home care without the excessive cost or discomfort of being in a hospital. Charismata HH specializes in home health care for those who are recovering from illness or injury.

The philosophy of Charismata Home Health is to provide the patient and his or her family and friends supportive and loving care, in tranquil surroundings, to promote a full and lasting recovery. The patient is then given access to community resources that will minimize future health crises and facilitate on-going good health.

We seek to alleviate emotional as well as physical problems and enhance access to services contributing to recovery.

With appropriate care and use of the multitude of resources that are available for rehabilitation and recovery, the opportunity to return to normal daily activities is greatly enhanced.

At Charismata, we respect the patient's right to be furnished with complete and current information regarding his or her medical condition. This includes, but is not limited to, the prognosis and plan of care, as well as any significant risks that may be involved. Each and every patient shall have the right to refuse any and all treatments.

The patient and their family are assured that the physician, nurse, and social worker are available to discuss any matter of concern.

The patient has a right to complete privacy concerning their health care program, including all written communication, case histories, consultations, physical examinations and treatments.

Charismata Home Health exists to provide the greatest quality care and support to patients and their families who are recovering from an illness or injury. Our goal is to facilitate recovery through a variety of therapies, medicine and education.

The Meaning of "Charismata" – A divinely inspired gift, grace, or talent as for prophesying or healing.
