Beautiful

Everything is as God made it; not as it appears to man. Long ago I thought that I was the ugliest person on the planet because of what I was told growing up as a little girl. Ugly is what they constantly called me and it stuck. I wore that identity for years walking around with my head hanging down in shame and carrying a heavy heart filled with rejection. To me, there was nothing beautiful about that because I didn't fit in or belong.

Today, I know better. There is beauty to be found in all of God's creations. Some things are made beautiful immediately designed by Him. Others by instruments and some He suffers to be done by putting through a fiery furnace. No matter what the process, all are ordered to answer the wisest and greatest purpose. That purpose is to please Him.

It's all for His Glory. God has made everything beautiful in its time.
